Exempt Research Certificate

The Research Division at the Ministry of Public health (MoPH) has reviewed the below listed research projects:

1. Public Artworks policy in Doha: how public Artworks in Doha are selected?
2. Art Foundations: Policies and Practices in Qatar and beyond
3. Investigating motivations of cultural tourists visiting Museum of Islamic Art in Qatar
4. The Management and Convergence of Library, Archives, and Museum Functions in Qatar National Library
5. Research Data Management Services in Qatar (RDMS): Awareness in Academic Libraries
6. How emotion is used as a tool for visitor engagement in Msheirib Museums
7. Implementing new national bibliographic services at Qatar National Library: a case study

All UCL researchers confirmed that there will be no collection of identifiable information. Upon review, the research has been categorized as exempt research under category (2): Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures or observation of public behavior, unless: (i) information obtained is recorded in such a manner that human subjects can be identified; and (ii) any disclosure of the human subjects' responses outside the research could reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, or reputation.

However, please note that in accordance with MoPH policy, the regulations state that “research involving...interview procedures...{is exempt from this policy} unless (1) information obtained is recorded in such a manner that human subject can be identified directly or through identifiers linked to the subject and (2) disclosure of the human subject responses outside the research could reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability, or be damaging to the subjects’ financial standing, employability, or reputation”. Under conditions mentioned in (1) and (2), the proposal must be reviewed by an Institutional Review Board Committee.
